Identity Theft Victim's Packet

Information and Instructions

This packet should be completed once you have contacted the City of Casa Grande Police Department and obtained a police Activity Number related to your identity theft case. To obtain a police Activity Number, call the non-emergency dispatch line at (520) 421-8700. Please keep track of your Activity Number, as creditors, financial institutions and credit reporting agencies will ask for it.

My City of Casa Grande Police Department Activity number is:

Report number (upon completion of filing report):

Retain this packet for your records as it contains information that will assist you with correcting your credit record and disputing the debts fraudulently incurred using your stolen personal identifying information. This packet also has information that will enable you to obtain financial records related to the fraudulent accounts. You will need to provide these records to law enforcement, which will use them to conduct a criminal investigation. We recognize that some victims are only interested in the correction of their credit and do not necessarily desire prosecution; therefore, we request that you only submit this packet to the Casa Grande Police Department if you desire prosecution.

It is important to understand that in the event that a suspect is identified and the case proceeds to court, as the victim you would mostly likely be required to appear and testify in court. You will need to complete the dispute letters and provide us with necessary documentation before we can begin investigating your case for prosecution. Examples of the document evidence we need are included in this packet. Without document evidence, we cannot begin the investigation. Please write your report number on copies of all documents that you submit to Police.

 It is important to note that even if the suspect cannot be identified for prosecution, it will not affect your ability to correct the fraudulent accounts and remove them from your credit.

 Furthermore, when you report your identity crime to the Casa Grande Police Department all of the relevant information from your case is entered into our database, which will allow us to cross-reference your report with potential suspects who are involved in or arrested on other cases.

NOTE:

- If you suspect someone is using your personal information for employment and there is no evidence of other identity fraud, please see the "Additional Useful Information" section for information about contacting the Social Security Administration. Do not contact the employer directly as they might warn the suspect employee.
- If your name and/or information are used by someone else to avoid a traffic ticket or any criminal prosecution, you may file a report with the Casa Grande Police Department, and the report will be forwarded to the proper jurisdiction for follow-up. It may not be necessary to complete this packet.

Helpful Hints:

- Remember that each creditor has different policies and procedures for correcting fraudulent accounts.

- Do not provide creditors with original documents and be sure to keep copies of everything you provide to the creditors or companies involved in the identity theft.
- Write down all dates, times and the names of individuals you speak to regarding the identity theft and correction of your credit.

Step 1: Contact your bank and other credit card issuers.

If the identity theft involved an existing bank account(s) (checking, savings, credit or debit card, investment account, mortgage, etc.) you should do the following:

- Contact the financial institution and file a fraud report. You must complete a fraud affidavit from the financial institution and provide the Pinal County Sheriff's Office with a copy of the affidavit.
- Close the account that was used fraudulently or put stop payments on all outstanding checks that might have been written without your knowledge.
- Close all credit card accounts that were used fraudulently.
- Close any account accessible by debit card if it has been accessed fraudulently.
- Open new accounts protected with a password or personal identification number (PIN)

If the identity theft involved the creation of new bank accounts, you should do the following:

- Call the involved financial institution and notify them of the identity theft.
- They will likely require additional notification in writing. (see step 4)

Step 2: Contact all three (3) major credit reporting bureaus.

First request the credit bureaus place a "Fraud Alert" on your file. A fraud alert will put a notice on your credit report that you are the victim of identity theft. Merchants and financial institutions may opt to contact you directly before any new credit is taken out in your name.

Some states allow for a Security Freeze in which a PIN can be designated on your credit file and subsequently the PIN must then be given in order for credit to be extended. Ask the credit reporting bureaus if your state is participating in the Security Freeze Program.

www.scamsafe.com – provides useful information related to identity theft and indicates which states participate in the Security Freeze program.

www.annualcreditreport.com – provides one free credit report, per credit bureau agency, per year, with subsequent credit reports available at a nominal fee.

The following is a list of the three (3) major credit-reporting bureaus for victims to report fraud:

Equifax

Consumer Fraud Division
800-525-6285
P.O. Box 740256
Atlanta, GA 30374

TransUnion

Fraud Victim Assistance Dept
800-680-7289
P.O. Box 6790
Fullerton, CA 92834

Experian

National Consumer Assist
888-397-3742
P.O. Box 9530
Allen, TX 75013

Step 3: File a report with the Federal Trade Commission.

- You can go on-line to file an identity theft complaint with the FTC at www.FTC.gov and click on the ID Theft icon or by calling 1-877-IDTHEFT.
- In the event the identity theft was committed on the Internet, you may file a complaint with the Internet Crime Complaint Center online at www.ic3.gov.

Step 4: Contact creditors involved in the Identity Theft by phone and in writing.

Contact all the companies or institutions where the suspect obtained credit or opened new accounts using your personal identifying information. Provide these creditors with the completed Identity Theft Affidavit (some may require that you use their own affidavit), Letter of Dispute, and a copy of the FACTA Law.

FTC Identity Theft Affidavit

A copy of the FTC Identity Theft Affidavit can be found at the end of this packet. This is the same affidavit that the FTC makes available to victims of identity theft. The affidavit requests information regarding you, as the victim, how the fraud occurred, law enforcement's actions, documentation checklist and Fraudulent Account Statement.

NOTE. Some creditors, financial institutions, or collection agencies have their own affidavit that you may have to complete.

Letters of Dispute

Sample copies of the Letters of Dispute can also be found at the end of this packet. This letter needs to be completed for every creditor involved in the identity theft. The letter of dispute should contain information related to the fraudulent account(s), your dispute of the account(s), and your request for the information to be corrected. In addition, the letter should reference FACTA and make a request for copies of any and all records related to the fraudulent accounts be provided to you and made available to the Pinal County Sheriff's Office.

FACTA Law

A portion of the FACTA Law can also be found at the end of this packet. As previously discussed in this packet, FACTA allows for you to obtain copies of any and all records related to the fraudulent accounts. You are then permitted to provide law enforcement with copies of the records you received related to the fraudulent accounts; thereby allowing us to bypass the sometimes difficult process of obtaining subpoenas for the very same information. It also allows you to request the information be made available to the Pinal County Sheriff's Office. We have found it useful to provide a copy of the FACTA Law with the submission of the Identity Theft Affidavit and Letter of Dispute to the individual creditors.

Step 5: Submit the Identity Theft Affidavit and copies of all information and records obtained from the creditors with regard to the fraudulent accounts to:

Casa Grande Police Department – Property Crimes Unit

373 East Val Vista Boulevard

Casa Grande, Arizona 85122

To avoid confusion and to ensure that all items are forwarded to the Detective Unit assigned to your case, we request that you submit everything at once and if possible do not send items separately. Be sure to write your police report number on each page/document submitted. The types of document evidence needed are listed on the next page. The information can be hand delivered or mailed. Please remember that some victims are only interested in the correction of their credit and do not necessarily wish for prosecution. Therefore, we request that you only submit this packet to the Casa Grande Police Department if you desire prosecution and are willing and available to appear and testify in court should a suspect be identified and arrested.

Documentation for Prosecution
