CGPD DUI Detail Results

Casa Grande, AZ – The Casa Grande Police Department conducted a DUI enforcement detail over the Cinco de Mayo holiday weekend. The detail began on Friday and ended yesterday. Officers patrolled the city in an effort to identify impaired drivers and educate the public on the dangers of drinking and driving.

By the end of this detail, Officers made 8 DUI arrests and issued 87 citations. Of the 8 DUI arrests, 2 were for Aggravated DUI, 4 were for Extreme DUI, one was for DUI Drugs and one for DUI above 0.08. The average Blood Alcohol Content of the arrested drivers was 0.158.

The Officers who participated in the enforcement effort conducted a total of 279 traffic stops due to driving violations. Other than DUI, some of the key citations issued were for speeding, stop signs, and child restraint and seat belt violations.

It is important to recognize that our Officers contacted 23 designated drivers during this detail. The Casa Grande Police Department continues to urge the public to make smart decisions when drinking alcohol. Remember to have a designated driver or make alternate arrangements for transportation.
