Fatal Vehicle Collision Investigation

Casa Grande, AZ – The Casa Grande Police Department Critical Accident Investigations Team continues to investigate the fatal collision that occurred yesterday on Trezell Road. Investigators have identified the three occupants as 24 year old Mauricio Barreras Moraga, 20 year old Kimberly Marie Armenta and a 15 year old male. Kimberly Armenta was found deceased at the scene of the collision. The two males were flown to Phoenix area hospitals. The 15 year old was treated and released to his family yesterday.

Mauricio Moraga was released from the hospital this afternoon, taken into custody by CGPD and transported to the Casa Grande Public Safety Facility for booking. Investigators have determined Moraga was the driver of the truck, which was reported stolen from Maricopa. Investigators are forwarding numerous felony charges on Moraga to the Pinal County Attorney's Office for review. These charges include Manslaughter, Aggravated Assault and Theft of Means of Transportation.
