Holiday DUI Patrol

Casa Grande, AZ – The Casa Grande Police Department will be participating in DUI saturation patrols for 4th of July weekend, beginning Friday July 1st through Tuesday July 5th. Efforts will be directed at detecting and arresting impaired drivers and educating them on the negative effects their choices could leave on the community. Several officers with specialized training in DUI detection will be assigned to work enforcement details in and around Casa Grande. The saturation patrols will begin each weekend night and run until the early morning hours.

Please remember consuming any amount of alcohol or drugs that would impair your driving is considered being under the influence. We ask our citizens to make good decisions. If you plan on drinking alcoholic beverages, please use a designated driver or arrange for alternative transportation.
