Police Investigate Child Death

Casa Grande, AZ – On January 28, 2014, the Casa Grande Police Department responded to a 911 call from a residence in the 700 block of East 9th Street reference a 1 year old child possibly run over by a truck.

The mother of the 1 year old boy called 911 at approximately 8:49 p.m. stating her son was hit by a car and was not awake. Police Officers responding to the scene found the child in the residence with his family. The child was unresponsive and showed significant signs of trauma. Officers initially attempted to render aid and medics arrived on scene to assist. The child was transported to the Casa Grande Regional Medical Center where medical staff pronounced him deceased shortly thereafter.

Initial investigation leads Police to believe the father of the child may have struck the child with his truck when he left the home and returned a short time later. Investigators are trying to determine why the child was outside and if he was supervised. It is unknown at this time if any charges will be filed in this case. Due to the ongoing investigation, further details are not available at this time.
