CGPD Labor Day DUI Patrol

Casa Grande, AZ – The Casa Grande Police Department will be participating in DUI saturation patrols from Friday, September 4th through Monday, September 7th as part of the Pinal County Regional DUI Task Force. Efforts will be directed at detecting and arresting impaired drivers and educating them on the negative effects their choices could leave on the community. Several officers with specialized training in DUI detection will be assigned to work enforcement details in and around Casa Grande. Sheriff's Deputies and Police Officers from Pinal County are scheduled to attend. The saturation patrols will begin each night and continue throughout the early morning hours.

Please remember consuming any amount of alcohol or drugs that would impair your driving is considered being under the influence. We ask our citizens to make good decisions. If you plan on drinking alcoholic beverages, please use a designated driver or arrange for alternative transportation.
