Several neighbors were able to provide witness information indicating these two subjects may have stolen property from vehicles in the neighborhood. Based on the descriptions provided, Officers responded and immediately identified the two reported subjects in the area.

Officers began interviewing witnesses and neighbors and were able to determine the subjects entered an open garage of a residence on West Racine Loop and burglarized a vehicle inside. Witness statements and evidence located in the area led Officers to discover two more vehicles were burglarized, one on Racine Loop and one in the 1800 block of North Parkside Lane.

The two subjects detained were identified as 21 year old Juan Murillo and 21 year old Marc Pedregon.
