Police Investigate Robbery

Casa Grande, AZ – On Wednesday December 18th, 2013 at approximately 7:54 p.m., the Casa Grande Police Department responded to a call reference a possible robbery. Upon arrival, Officers contacted the victim, a 31 year old male Casa Grande resident who stated he was walking through the alley in the 400 block between West 9th and West 10th Street when two unknown men approached him. The victim stated a fight ensued and he was struck and kicked several times.

A short time later, Police responded to a medical call in the area of the 1400 block of North French Street reference two men with injuries. Both men sustained apparent stab wounds and required medical treatment at Casa Grande Regional Medical Center. One of the men, 28 year old Casa Grande resident Adrian Valdez, was treated and released with minor cuts to his shoulder and back. His brother, 25 year old Fabian Valdez was later transported to Maricopa Medical Center for further treatment of an apparent stab wound to his chest.

Initial investigation leads Police to believe the Valdez brothers attempted to rob the victim and were injured when he defended himself. Fabian Valdez's condition is unknown at this time. This investigation is ongoing and it is currently unknown if any charges will be filed.
