Police Investigating Death

Casa Grande, AZ – On Wednesday December 25th, 2013 at approximately 9:31 p.m., the Casa Grande Police Department responded to a 911 call reference a domestic dispute at The Colony Apartments, located at 351 North Peart Road. The caller, a 33 year old male identified as Adam Villa, stated his wife stabbed him and he was driving himself to Casa Grande Regional Medical Center.

Officers responded to The Colony Apartments and found 35 year old Connie Villa and her children in the apartment. Initially, three of her children, ages 3, 5 and 8, were found in the apartment with her. During the investigation, Police discovered a fourth child, a 13 year old female, identified as Aniarael Macias, deceased in the bathroom.

The initial investigation revealed that two adult subjects had been stabbed. Connie and her husband were both flown to separate Phoenix area hospitals for treatment. The three surviving children were transported to a Phoenix area hospital for evaluation. The cause of death of the 13 year old girl is unknown at this time and Police are awaiting an autopsy to confirm.

At this time, it is unclear what the dispute was over. As of this morning, both parents and the three children remain hospitalized. This investigation is ongoing and criminal charges are pending the outcome of the investigation and autopsy.
