CGPD Captain Graduates FBI National Academy

Casa Grande, AZ – The Casa Grande Police Department is proud to announce that Captain Reginald Winston has graduated from the Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy!

On December 11th in Quantico, Virginia, Captain Winston was among 230 law enforcement officers to successfully graduate the 10 week academy known for its academic excellence, advanced communication, leadership and fitness training.

Captain Winston has served the Casa Grande police community for nearly 20 years and currently serves as the Patrol Commander where he is responsible for all patrol functions including police response to calls for assistance and proactive enforcement of state and city statutes, field training, K9 units, and bicycle patrol. He also serves as a Major in the Arizona Army National Guard, bringing his military service career to a current total of 24 years.

“Captain Winston received valuable leadership training that he will share with our staff and citizenry to continue to provide the service our community has come to expect. The FBI Academy training will make him an even better leader than he already is” said Chris Vasquez, Director of Police Services.
